CYNHADLEDD GWIR FWYD A FFERMIO CYMRU

WALES REAL FOOD & FARMING CONFERENCE

Hello,

We're really looking forward to welcoming you next week to the 8th Wales Real Food and Farming Conference on Wednesday 18th and Thursday 19th November, held at The National Botanic Gardens of Wales.

Below you'll find some important information to help you plan your visit:

Programme

The full programme is now available online, and printed copies will be available at the conference. There's no need to book sessions in advance.

If you'd like your compost or soil tested, then please bring some in a container to the Soil Lab Ecology on Wednesday at 4.15pm. Full information in the programme.

Lunch

A hot lunch is complimentary to ticket holders and will be served in the Great Glasshouse. There will be two lunch sittings: 12.30pm and 1.30pm.

Please help us by choosing your lunch sitting in advance by filling in this form.

Tours

Information about the on site tours can be found in the programme. They are offered at 12.30pm and 1.30pm on Wednesday and Thursday.

There will also be an off site tour on Thursday morning 9.00am at the nearby Bremenda Isaf farm, see details in programme.

Registration

Registration opens at 8am on Wednesday and Thursday. Please head to the Great Glasshouse for registration. Please arrive early in time for sessions starting at 9.30am

Lift Share

If you would like to offer a lift or look for a lift there is a lift share document here.

Parking

Please park in the main National Botanic Gardens of Wales carpark, and entrance is through the main reception. It is a short walk up to the Great Glasshouse. Buggies will be available for those who require transport.

Please let us know if you have any access requirements.

Photography and filming

A photographer and videographer will be present during the event for promotional purposes. If you prefer not to be filmed or photographed, please let us know by email or when you register.

Accommodation

If you need accommodation, we have put a list together here of local hotels / B&Bs. Please note, since we put this list together, Y Seren Hotel has closed down. If you had booked Y Seren please be aware that they are closed.

Questions?

If you have any questions, please contact us at info@wrffc.wales and we'll get back to you as soon as possible.

We can’t wait to see you next week for what promises to be a fantastic couple of days!
